

Jon Minott

From: The Cooler [thecooler@scottsdaleworship.com]
Sent: Friday, September 28, 2007 3:26 AM
To: jon@scottsdaleworship.com
Subject: The Daily H2O

The Cooler

Refreshment for a Thirsty Soul
9/28/07 Issue 12

Dear Jon,

Friday: 9/28/07

Matthew 9:35-37, "Then Jesus made a circuit of all the towns and villages. He taught in their meeting places, reported kingdom news and healed their diseased bodies, healed their bruised and hurt lives. When He looked out over the crowds, His heart broke. So confused and aimless they were, like sheep with no shepherd."

It is the most human thing in the world to become cynical and "jaded" by the situations we see every day. It's easier to not care because of the emotional toll it will take on us and the enormity of the need. But the example we see in Jesus is one of deep compassion for those around Him, those who were desperate as well as those who looked like they "had it all together." The truth is that we are all desperate and dying without the work of the cross in our lives. Jesus met the perceived need in order to bring God glory and to have a platform from which to preach the Good News of His arrival. When we meet someone's practical, "felt" need, it gives us a way to share the love of Christ with them.

Domino Idea:

Plan to help cook and/or go to Home on the Way on Tuesday, October 2007. If neither is possible, pray for this ministry. Call the church office for details 480-483-2401

Dear H2O,

Thanks for the verse of scripture and the domino idea. I downloaded my neighborhood map and printed it out. I was surprised to see how much bigger my neighborhood looks from the "birds-eye" view. Even my little place on the map is filled with so many lives to care about and reach out to. I think the out of sight out of mind principle is true when it comes to a quick drive through my neighborhood so I can get home (I am usually in a hurry). Looking at it stationary on paper seems to stop time for a moment and I am made uniquely aware of the presence of so many others living right around me. I will make it a point to

This is great. Interesting that you are using "the cooler" as your name. This is also a name for the guy the casinos send in to play when someone is winning too much. They are for making a winner's luck go bad. I thought how backwards the world's ways are. Our Cooler is for keeping us from the counter-fit ill-gotten gain and giving us the Word for treasures that are not only good but eternal.... and not by luck but by God given faith.
Wonderful!

Jill

Haggai, was the first prophet to minister to the first remnant of the people of Israel to return to pray over the map and intend to walk around the blocks closest to my home in hopes for a divine appointment of sorts. I'll let you know what happens.

Thanks, Pastor Lenny

Jerusalem from Babylonian captivity. His main message was to inspire the people to give priority to the construction of the temple. He viewed the importance of religious ritual above even justice and righteousness. 15 years had passed since their return and only the temple foundations had been laid. Meanwhile, the people had built fine houses for themselves. Within weeks of Haggai's rebuke, construction was restarted. God responded by saying that he would be with the people and bless them. 4 years later, the temple was finished.

Erik

Revelation 22:17

"If you are thirsty, come! If you want life-giving water, come and take it. It's Free!"

Forward email

✉ SafeUnsubscribe®

This email was sent to jon@scottsdaleworship.com, by thecooler@scottsdaleworship.com
Update Profile/Email Address | Instant removal with SafeUnsubscribe™ | Privacy Policy.

Email Marketing by

Scottsdale Worship Center | 6508 E Cactus Road | Scottsdale | AZ | 85254