Refreshment for a Thirsty Soul
Friday, 10/12/07 Issue 26

Dear Jon,

Friday: 10/12/07

Colossians 3:12, "So, chosen by God for this new life of love, dress in the wardrobe God picked out for you: compassion, kindness, humility, quiet strength, discipline"

Sometimes we worry about the "image" we project more than is necessary in our interactions with people. We all want to "present" well, but it doesn't remotely compare with the need for the godly inner "wardrobe" discussed in this verse! Long after people have forgotten our fashion sense, they will feel the impact of our kindness, love and care for them-or lack thereof. The great thing is that God has provided the wardrobe; we don't have to come up with it ourselves---which is good, because we can't afford it. All purchased by the blood of Christ . . . .

Domino Idea:

Ask intentional questions of your co-workers/neighbors as they relate problems to you, such as, "how is this problem affecting you and what would you change in your life, if you could?" or "what elements of stress would you like to eliminate from your life?" It's about finding out "where they are" at that moment and asking questions is a good way to show you care about someone.

Revelation 22:17

"If you are thirsty, come! If you want life-giving water, come and take it. It's Free!"
