Refreshment for a Thirsty Soul
Saturday, 10/13/07 Issue 27

Dear Jon,

Saturday: 10/13/07

Matthew 11:28-29

"Are you tired? Worn out? Burned out on religion? Come to me. Get away with me and you'll recover your life. I'll show you how to take a real rest. Walk with me and work with me-watch how I do it. Learn the unforced rhythms of grace. I won't lay anything heavy or ill-fitting on you. Keep company with me and you'll learn to live freely and lightly."

The thing we most need to have this kind of life is what we're least inclined to do--- spending time talking with Him! In the Gospels we see Jesus leaving the crowds to spend time alone with His Father, usually at odd hours, and then into a full day of ministry. Oswald Chambers says that our worth to God in public is determined by our worth to Him in private, that is, we are "fueled" for public ministry by our times of private prayer. Living a life that pleases God is not as complicated as religion has made it; Jesus offers the most exciting, peace-filled life possible as we "walk and work" with Him.

Domino Idea:

Make some time to just "be" with Him. You won't be sorry . . . .

Revelation 22:17

"If you are thirsty, come! If you want life-giving water, come and take it. It's Free!"
