

The Cooler

Refreshment for a Thirsty Soul
Thursday, 10/18/07 Issue 32

Dear Jon,

Thursday: 10/18/07

II Peter 1:3, "Everything that goes into a life of pleasing God has been miraculously given to us by getting to know, personally and intimately, the One who invited us to God."

In reaching out to others, our heart-knowledge of Christ is key---far more important than our understanding of theology, though that is needed foundational knowledge. If you've spent any time in a church setting, you know it's easy to fall into the rut of knowing about Him instead of knowing Him. We all have to purpose to keep our relationship with God fresh and growing, to reject the impulse toward stagnation. Sometimes this means continuing in prayer and Bible reading even when we don't feel like it, or disciplining ourselves to come to church with an expectant heart. The great thing is that God meets us where we are and then increases our desire and capacity for Him as we're obedient. We will please Him without self-conscious effort as we grow to know Him more

Domino Idea:

Please pray for God to do great things in individual lives in the SWC family, both at Family Camp and at the SWC campus. Pray for Pastor Leon at camp and for Pastor Chris at SWC.

Revelation 22:17

"If you are thirsty, come! If you want life-giving water, come and take it. It's Free!"
