

The Cooler

Refreshment for a Thirsty Soul
Saturday, 10/20/07 Issue 34

Dear Jon,

Saturday: 10/20/07

I John 3:18-21,
"My dear children, let's not just talk about love; let's practice real love. This is the only way we'll know we're living truly, living in God's reality. It's also the way to shut down debilitating self-criticism, even when there is something to it. For God is greater than our worried hearts and knows more about us than we do ourselves. And friends, once that's taken care of and we're no longer accusing or condemning ourselves, we're bold and free before God!"

John had a tremendous understanding of the love of Christ. In his Gospel, he referred to himself as the disciple Jesus loved---a title we can all adopt for ourselves! In the powerful love of Jesus, we are free from the tyranny of self-analysis, self-hatred, self-love, self-consciousness---It's about getting our eyes off of us and on to Him. The natural outflow of this relationship is love for others.

Domino Idea:

If you're in town this weekend, come to "early-bird" prayer tomorrow at SWC at 9:00 AM - 9:15 AM in the Sanctuary and pray for the service in Prescott. If you're at Family Camp, please pray for the service at home!

Revelation 22:17

"If you are thirsty, come! If you want life-giving water, come and take it. It's Free!"
