Refreshment for a Thirsty Soul
Sunday, 10/21/07 Issue 35

Dear Jon,

Sunday: 10/21/07

II Corinthians 2:14-15, "In the Messiah, in Christ, God leads us from place to place in one perpetual victory parade. Through us, He brings knowledge of Christ. Everywhere we go, people breathe in the exquisite fragrance. Because of Christ, we give off a sweet scent rising to God, which is recognized by those on the way to salvation---an aroma redolent with life."

Perfume . . . flowers . . . the sea air . . . chocolate chip cookies baking in the oven . . . we all have our favorite fragrances! A scent is powerful, elusive and often evokes emotions and memories that take us by surprise.

In Paul's days, conquering military heroes would lead their captives through the streets and display the spoils of war in a parade when they returned home. The street would be lined with bowls of burning, highly-fragrant incense which the crowd would experience as they watched the spectacle. This is a lovely metaphor of how we share Christ because the fragrance we "give off" was purchased through the victory of Jesus on the cross. Our contact with people can be just "in passing," yet we can impact them with the "aroma of life" in a moment, just as we inhale a fragrance as we pass a person . . . or an oven ...
